Calemoran Chain: Each suit of Calemoran chain mail is a work of art. It is a wide, spacious type of chain. Each individual link is carved with scenes of heroic action. It is custom-made for each owner. This armor is worn primarily during ceremonies, and by younger warriors who have not yet gained complete confidence in their ability to withstand weapons. Calemoran chain inflicts a -15 Hearing penalty.

Calemoran Plate: This is Calemoran chain that has had engraved plates added to the torso, arms, and legs. This inflicts a -30 Hearing penalty.

Heavy Armor

Type	THR	Head	Chest	Abdomen	Arms	Legs	Wings	Head	Chest	Abdomen	Arms	Legs	ENC	Ele	EMP	Fire	Cold
Flying Titan	12	20	40	40	20	40	120	50	36	36	18	36	25	110	110	95	95

The Flying Titan: This heavy armor is produced by the Metalwerks Corporation. Statistically, it is not particularly special, but it does come with a built-in flight system that uses self-recharging batteries. This flight system allows the armor to reach speeds of 250 kph. It can go for 12 hours at max speed, 24 hours at cruising speed (125 kph), and indefinitely with periodic rest stops. Cost: 350,000

Mechanized Armor

Type	THR	Head	Chest	Abdomen	Arms	Legs	Head	Chest	Abdomen	Arms	Legs	ENC	Ele	EMP	Fire	Cold
Shining Titan	75	75	150	150	75	150	105	105	105	50	105	4	95	105	105	105

Shining Titan Mechanized Armor: This is the first suit of mechanized armor produced by the Metalwerks Corporation. Statistically, it falls between the Argus armor, and the Dreadnought suit. It is composed of a shiny, reflective alloy that grants a +40 to Sighting checks at all ranges. But it has an effective THR of 100 versus beam weapons. Each suit is custom-made, and comes with 175,000 cr of accessories. Cost: 10 M.
